"Enhancing Lives"

A motivational speech by Head Women's Basketball Coach, LaVonda Wagner

Summary of presentation

Listening to Women's Basketball Coach, LaVonda Wagner was a very positive experience. It's no wonder the team did so well with such an excellent leader. LaVonda spoke to the group very informally, sharing anecdotes from her coaching experiences and also sharing how she gained her leadership and public speaking skills. Some of the things I took away from her presentation include:

- Always be yourself and always tell the truth
- Treat people the way you want to be treated
- If you want to be effective, it helps to be nice, assertive, and under control. Always maintain your dignity and class.
- The above things can really be hard work.
- We all lead, and leading means service.

These are just some of the things that came to mind for me. If you get the chance to hear Coach Wagner speak, take the opportunity it will be worth it. We are looking forward to a new season with a bunch of new players being lead by Coach Wagner. Good Luck Coach, and Go Beavs!

-Laurel Busse

Monthly Meetings Update

June 7, 2006

12:00 – 1:00

West Dining Hall Conference Room
"ESSA Presents a Diversity Panel"

On June 7th, we are lucky to have the Ethnic Studies Student Association meeting with us. Ron Atay and Matthew Keetle will be presenting information about ESSA and what they are all about. They will also provide a diversity panel discussion that will deal with underrepresented ethnicity, sexuality, and gender. There will be about 5-8 people on the panel representing all of these areas. They will address some of the challenges that these people face here on campus. I hope you can attend this meeting to learn more and help raise awareness of the issues faced by underrepresented students on campus.
